Subject: Crisis in Ukraine

Dear Valuable Customer

Following the tragic developments in the Ukraine, we have been in contact with our major Business Divisions (BD) and Headquarters in Japan to check any potential impacts. As we do not have any production facilities in either Ukraine or Russia, there is no direct impact to our production from current events as of now.

The raw material supply base is currently being checked by each BD and an update will follow as soon as available.

We will continue to monitor the situation closely.

With best Regards,

Risk Management Section
