We are fully committed to helping you manage this transition with clarity. Please reach out to your local Honeywell sales representative to discuss your transition plans or any other inquiries you may have.

WARRANTY/REMEDY

Honeywell warrants goods of its manufacture as being free of defective materials and faulty workmanship during the applicable warranty period. Honeywell’s standard product warranty applies unless agreed to otherwise by Honeywell in writing; please refer to your order acknowledgement or consult your local sales office for specific warranty details. If warranted goods are returned to Honeywell during the period of coverage, Honeywell will repair or replace, at its option, without charge, those items that Honeywell, in its sole discretion, finds defective. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of a product end-of-life or obsolescence, or inability of Honeywell to manufacture or source materials or component parts for a product, for any reason, whether within or outside Honeywell’s control, and/or any associated last-time buy in relation to a product (an “Obsolescence”), Honeywell shall engage in commercially reasonable efforts to repair or replace products in accordance with the terms of its standard warranty, but in no event shall it be liable if it is unable to do so due to the Obsolescence. The foregoing is buyer’s sole remedy and is in lieu of all other warranties, expressed or implied, including those of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose. In no event shall Honeywell be liable for consequential, special, or indirect damages.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.
