

PCN: Multi-Sourcing for Product Packaging Bags

We would like to inform you that procurement of antistatic protective bags used for packaging our products has become increasingly difficult due to the recent situation in the Middle East. As a result, for the products listed below, the current bags will become unavailable for production from late August 2026 onward. Therefore, in order to ensure continued product supply, we will use alternative packaging bags with equivalent characteristics, including bags of different sizes and/or
