REASON FOR CHANGE: DISCONTINUATION

DESCRIPTION OF CHANGE: (Required)

Panduit is implementing an aesthetic update to the PVC insulation used on our multi-tap connector product family. Effective immediately, the insulation color will transition from clear blue PVC to clear PVC as a running change. This change is strictly cosmetic in nature. There is no impact to fit, form, or function of the product. All electrical, mechanical, material, and performance specifications remain unchanged. There are no changes to part numbers, certifications, compliance standards, or installation procedures.

Customers can expect a gradual transition as existing inventory is depleted and replaced with the updated insulation. During this transition period, both versions may be present in the market.
