Affected article category	Charging technology for electromobility
Change category	Function, Software modification
Change number	CXW250059-00
Reason for PCN/PDN Revision

---

Purpose/objective of the change

Firmware function extension and debugging

Detailed description of the change

A new software version for the CHARX control modular charging controller is available for download on the Phoenix Contact website. Please consult the release notes for detailed information regarding the changes and improvements introduced in this version.

Please note that devices may still be delivered with an earlier software version. To ensure compliance with the RED directive, we strongly recommend to update devices to the latest software version.

Identifying characteristics

The firmware version will be increased. The firmware version is not printed on the item and can only be read from the module. The V/C item revision will increase and is printed on the packaging.
