Discontinuation of capacitors with 4-/5-pin snap-in terminals and solder pins

To streamline the product range, the following aluminum electrolytic capacitors with snap-in terminals and solder pins are being discontinued without replacement. For alternative parts, please contact your regional sales representative.

Please note:

- Some ordering codes will currently not be terminated, but they cannot be ordered for new designs anymore (see list below).
- Delivery of products is subject to availability.
- If other customer-specific contracts have been concluded, other deadlines for last orders and last shipments may apply.
- Previous PTN announcements and their deadlines remain unaffected.
