Description of Change: As part of our ongoing commitment to improving product identification and optimizing internal processes, the complete SAP Part Number will now be included in the marking of below listed series, replacing the previous description.

(Cf. appendix of this PCN for examples/pictures of the future marking)

Reason for Change: The presence of the complete SAP part number on products will make products easier to identify and will ensure a more reliable match between the physical marking and order documents, simplifying verification, and reordering.

Expected Influence on Quality/Reliability/Performance: Improved and clearer identification of products.

Part Numbers/Series/Families Affected: Please see materials list on the succeeding page.

Dear ,

As advised by marketing, please find below a list of the most recent PN's sold for all series mentioned in this PIN (Product Information Notification)

- Series are RE10L / RE14L / RE16L / RE110L / RE115L / RE139L
- The list shows a mix of standard and customized PN (dedicated to specific customers)
- According to our Sales statistics, TTI India would not be concerned

Hope this helps:
