TE would like to inform you of the following change(s) to the listed TE Connectivity Product. In case of any further questions about this change(s), please contact your TE Connectivity Sales Engineer. Affected part, drawing and/or specification numbers are listed on the attached sheet(s).

General Product Description:

AMP-HDI Series 100

Description of Changes

Dear Customer, As part of our continuous effort to maintain product availability and ensure long-term supply continuity, we hereby inform you of a material update for selected products. The original resin grade has been discontinued by the material supplier and is being replaced with an equivalent resin grade that has undergone a comprehensive qualification and validation process. This change has been evaluated in accordance with TE Connectivity requirements and has demonstrated no adverse impact to quality, form, fit, function, reliability, or the ability to supply the affected products. All applicable product specifications, customer requirements, and industry standards remain unchanged.

Reason for Changes:

Product improvement.Product continuity and supply assurance. The original resin material has become obsolete and is no longer available from the supplier. The replacement resin is an equivalent material with comparable thermal, mechanical, electrical, and dimensional performance characteristics. Prior to implementation, the new material was subjected to internal evaluation and approval activities in accordance with TE Connectivity specifications. These activities confirmed that product performance and reliability are fully maintained. We remain committed to delivering consistent quality and performance and do not anticipate any impact to our customers as a result of this change.
